4. What is the meaning of Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP)?

As such there is no specific definition of CIRP provided in the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code' 2016. However, broadly it can be said that M/s. Rajesh Projects (India) Private Limited has done the "default" in payment of liabilities, hence the financial position of Rajesh Projects (India) Private Limited is not very well and CIRP is the process through which creditors of the Rajesh Projects (India) Private Limited can detect that whether the company can be revived or go on as a going concern before the liquidation and what are the possibilities of revival of the Rajesh Projects (India) Private Limited before its liquidation.

5. Who will conduct the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP)?

The Hon'ble NCLT had appointed Mr. Gaurav Katiyar, as Interim Resolution Professional (IRP), who shall act as IRP for initial period of Thirty (30) days after the expiry the Committee of Creditors (CoC) shall appoint one Resolution Professional.

6. How long the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) will run?

As per section 12 of the I & B Code' 2016, the CIRP has to be concluded within one hundred and eighty (180) days, however the period of one hundred and eighty (180) days can be extended to Three Hundred and Thirty days (330).

7. What will happen after the expiry of CIRP period?

Either the insolvency of Rajesh Projects (India) Private Limited will be resolved or the Rajesh Projects (India) Private Limited will go into the liquidation.

8. What is the meaning of Committee of Creditors (CoC) and who are its members?

Committee of Creditors shall be the body comprising the creditors of Rajesh Projects (India) Private Limited. Generally, the Financial Creditors are the members of the CoC, however in the absence of Financial Creditors, Eighteen largest operational creditors become the members of CoC.

9. What is the role/function of Committee of Creditors (CoC)?

After the constitution of CoC the CIRP is conducted on the instructions of the CoC and all the voting powers of the Board of Directors of the company are vested in the members of CoC.

10. Who are the financial creditors?

As per section 5(7) of the I & B Code' 2016 "Financial creditor" means any person to whom a financial debt is owed and includes a person to whom such debt has been legally assigned or transferred to. Further, section 5(8) of the I & B Code' 2016, defines the terms "Financial Debt".

11. Who are the operational creditors?

As per section 5(20) of the I & B Code' 2016 "operational creditor" means a person to whom an operational debt is owed and includes any person to whom such debt has been legally assigned or transferred. Further As per section 5(21) of the I & B Code' 2016, "operational debt" means a claim in respect of the provision of goods or services including employment or a debt in respect of the payment of dues arising under any law for the time being in force and payable to the Central Government, any State Government or any local authority.

care of interest of the creditors and in absence of your Form CA, you may be left out from their considerations.

30. Should a Form for filing proof of claim accompany any documentary evidence?

Yes. Every Form for filing proof of claim of a creditor shall be supported by documentary evidence. An Operational Creditor may support his/its claim with invoice/bill of supply of goods/services or any other relevant documentary proof.

31. What is the format of the Declaration required to be filed along with the proof of claim?

The format of Declaration is provided in Schedule in respect of each Form for filing proof of claim.

32. Each Form for submission of proof of claim by a creditor requires particulars of mutual credit, mutual debts, or other mutual dealings between the corporate debtor and the creditor which may be set-off against the claim made by the creditor. What is meant by such particulars?

There might be instances where debt may also be owed by the creditor towards the Corporate Debtor. Such debts may be referred to as mutual debts/credits between the Corporate Debtor and creditor, which may be set off against the debt/claim of the creditor. In such case, the creditor shall mention the particulars of such mutual debt in the specified space provided in the respective Form for filing proof of claim.

For example: A Ltd. is a Corporate Debtor owing debt amounting to INR 1000 to OC Ltd. an Operational Creditor for goods supplied by OC Ltd. A Ltd. is in the business of providing HR consultancy services. In its course of business, A Ltd. provided services to OC Ltd., consideration for which amounting to INR 400 is yet to be paid by OC Ltd. Such INR 400 shall be referred to as mutual debt between A Ltd. and OC Ltd. which may be set off against the claim of OC Ltd. amounting to INR 600. Particulars of such mutual debt have to be mentioned in Form B for submission of proof of claim by an Operational Creditor.

QUERIES RELEVANT FOR ALL THE CREDITORS OF THE COMPANY

33. How does the IRP/RP check the claim?

The IRP/RP is bound to consider the documentary proof filed by the creditor along with his claim. In case of any discrepancy the IRP/RP has right to ask for further documents/clarification from the creditor who is bound to provide the same.

The IRP/RP shall also consider the books of accounts and other records of the company, if the same is available to him.

34. What if, I submitted my claim with lesser amount and after some time I found that I am entitle for large amount?

Please immediately connect with your RP along with relevant documentary proof. Your RP has powers to vary your claim.

35. Does filing of claim means that the Corporate Debtor or the IRP/RP is going to pay me money?

A successful submission of claim by a creditor is not a confirmation/assurance of receipt of debt due. It is merely a representation that a debt is due of respective amount and nature.

36. What if I submit a wrong claim or inflate the claim amount, or write wrong particulars?

The submission of a claim is supported by your Affidavit, wherein you are swearing on oath that the particulars are true and correct. Please evaluate the serious implications of doing so.

Your claim forms the basis of the RP computing the liquidation value of the assets and liabilities of the Corporate Debtor. Therefore, you must ensure that the particulars submitted by you are true and correct.

37. My claim was disputed by the Corporate Debtor. Can I still submit the claim?

Yes, but then you must make it clear in your submission, that the Corporate Debtor has disputed the claim.

38. I have a contingent claim. Can I submit such claim?

Yes, but then you must make it clear that the claim is contingent, and clarify the contingency as well.

39. I am holding some securities/assets of the Corporate Debtor against my claim. Should I still submit the claim?

Yes. The assets of the Corporate Debtor form part of its liquidation estate, and your claim ranks as per priority order. Therefore, you must submit the claim and disclose the particulars of the assets/securities you are holding.

40. How do I contact the RP of the Corporate Debtor ?

Please send email to rgi.cirp@gmail.com.

41. Can I call the RP?

Communication through emails will be preferred.
